BY THE BARD OF OAK HALL. There is a doctor in our town, A man of practice and renown; He makes a handsome income clear, And lays up money every year. Now, when he started out in youth, He had but little cash in truth : And make a name and money too. He attended lectures, studied hard,

And very quickly passed the board; He opened office, hang out sign, But many patients could not find. Each day he sat, with saddened face For poverty came on space; At last a friend gave him advice Which changed his forthne in a trice. Now patients focked from far and near, And kept him busy all the year; Men and women, all declare, No ductor can with him compare. The secret of his great encouse, I'll tell you if you cannot guess The same advice will help you all, He got a suit from SMITH'S OAK HALL,
